Offered by the Faculty of Law with teaching support from the Li Ka Shing Faculty of Medicine, the programme provides an interdisciplinary perspective to pertinent issues in medical ethics and law. Teaching faculty (Academic Year 2020/21) includes Professor James Badenoch QC, Dr Michael Dunn (University of Oxford) and Dr Lucy Frith (University of Liverpool). The programme is open to candidates with a degree in law, or in medicine.

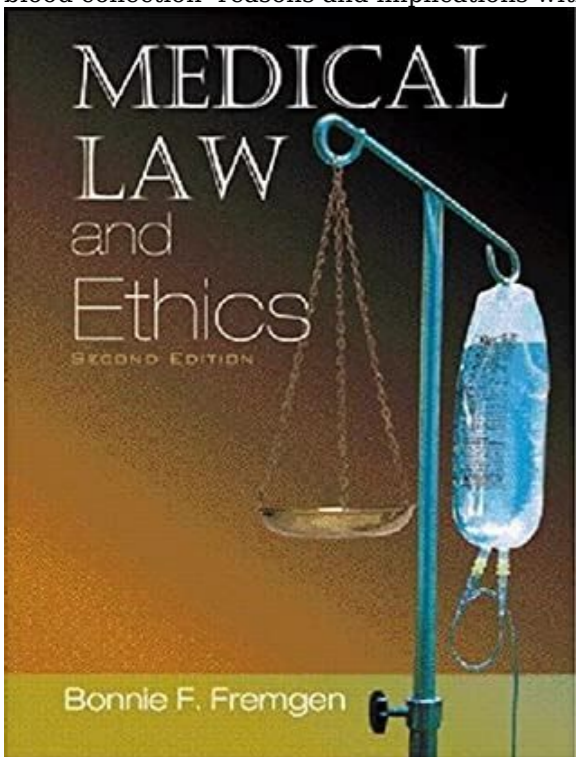

But candidates are not restricted to those with a degree in law or in medicine: suitable candidates holding a degree in a discipline other than law or medicine with relevant experience or professional qualifications will also be considered. For more details of the admission requirements, please see under 'Admission requirements'. Information sessions will be held online at 6:45 pm on 11 January 2021 and 1:00 pm on 22 February 2021.
